

MASTER OF ARTS IN INTERCULTURAL STUDIES

Available on the San Francisco, CA Campus

Mission

The mission of the Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies is to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the complexities of intercultural communication and the role of culture in human behavior. The program is designed to equip students with the skills and knowledge necessary to become effective intercultural communicators in a globalized world.

Admission Information

Admissions requirements

Applicants must hold a Bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution with a minimum GPA of 3.0. The program is open to students from all backgrounds and disciplines. Applicants must submit a completed application form, a current resume, and three letters of recommendation. A personal statement is also required, in which applicants should discuss their interest in intercultural studies and how the program aligns with their career goals. The program is a full-time, two-year program. Students must complete a minimum of 30 credit hours, including 12 hours of core courses and 18 hours of elective courses. The program is designed to be completed in two years of full-time study.

Provisional Admission

Students who do not meet the minimum GPA requirement may be admitted provisionally. Provisional students must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 in all courses taken during the first semester. If a student's GPA falls below 3.0, they will be required to repeat the semester. Students who are admitted provisionally must also complete a minimum of 12 credit hours of core courses during the first semester. The program is designed to be completed in two years of full-time study.

Program Features

The program features a variety of courses that provide students with a comprehensive understanding of intercultural communication. Core courses include Intercultural Communication, Intercultural Business Communication, and Intercultural Leadership. Elective courses include Intercultural Marketing, Intercultural Negotiation, and Intercultural Conflict Resolution. The program also offers a variety of experiential learning opportunities, including internships and study abroad programs. Students are encouraged to participate in these opportunities to gain practical experience in the field of intercultural communication.

The program is designed to be completed in two years of full-time study. Students must complete a minimum of 30 credit hours, including 12 hours of core courses and 18 hours of elective courses. The program is designed to be completed in two years of full-time study. Students must complete a minimum of 30 credit hours, including 12 hours of core courses and 18 hours of elective courses. The program is designed to be completed in two years of full-time study.

Graduation Requirements

Students must complete a minimum of 30 credit hours, including 12 hours of core courses and 18 hours of elective courses. The program is designed to be completed in two years of full-time study. Students must complete a minimum of 30 credit hours, including 12 hours of core courses and 18 hours of elective courses. The program is designed to be completed in two years of full-time study.

Financial Information

The program is designed to be completed in two years of full-time study. Students must complete a minimum of 30 credit hours, including 12 hours of core courses and 18 hours of elective courses. The program is designed to be completed in two years of full-time study.

Financial Aid

Students who do not meet the minimum GPA requirement may be admitted provisionally. Provisional students must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 in all courses taken during the first semester. If a student's GPA falls below 3.0, they will be required to repeat the semester. Students who are admitted provisionally must also complete a minimum of 12 credit hours of core courses during the first semester. The program is designed to be completed in two years of full-time study.

Intercultural Studies (ICS)

510 Intercultural Communication (3)

This course provides students with a comprehensive understanding of the complexities of intercultural communication. The course covers the role of culture in human behavior and the skills and knowledge necessary to become effective intercultural communicators in a globalized world. The course is designed to be completed in two years of full-time study.

515 International Professional Realities and Opportunities (3)

$