

Student Life

The following is a brief description of campus life at Union University and the various organizations that contribute to its unique community. A description of academic clubs and professional organizations is given within each academic department listing in the Catalogue. A more complete list of campus organizations and fuller explanation of their purpose and function is presented in the Campus Life Handbook.

Student Government Association (SGA)

The SGA, composed of all students enrolled in Union University, functions through its executive, legislative and judicial branches. Its elected officers and representatives serve as the official voice of the students in institutional affairs. The SGA seeks to foster University unity, promote student welfare and provide student programs, activities and services designed to meet the needs and interest of students.

All students preparing for church-related vocation within the Southern Baptist Convention and receiving the CCMS scholarship must adhere to program requirements. Details of the program are fully explained at a special orientation session at the beginning of the Fall Semester.

Intramural Athletics

At Union University, intramural athletics constitute an essential part of the total college program. During the fall and spring semesters, a program of competitive intramural sports is sponsored that opens the way for wide participation for both men and women. Awards are given each year based on a point system.

Intercollegiate Athletics

Intercollegiate athletic programs are an integral part of American college life. Union participates in the TranSouth conference and is a member of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics. Union University offers varsity competition for men in basketball, tennis, baseball, golf and soccer and for women in basketball, tennis, softball, volleyball and cross country. Union's athletic programs adhere strictly to all university, conference, and national regulations involving sports and academics for student athletes.

Regulations

Union University students are expected at all times to represent the University and the Christian community appropriately. Regulations regarding these expectations, student life as a whole and more particularly resident student life are found in detail in the Campus Life Handbook.

The President, the Dean of Students and the judicial system of the University are charged with the administration of discipline. They are empowered to rule in any irregularity pertaining to student life and impose consequences for values violations as expressed in the Campus Life Handbook. The judicial system and the grievance and appeal system are described in detail in that same publication.

Confidentiality of Student Records

The privacy and confidentiality of all student records shall be preserved in accordance to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974. The objective of the Act is to provide adult students greater access to and control over information contained in educational records. The law stipulates that each institution is responsible for making students aware of the law and its various ramifications. More information
