

THE HONORS COMMUNITY

Director

Scott Huelin ( )

Honors Student of the Year

Course Offerings in Honors (HON)

( )

205A-B. Wisdom (6) F

205A. Wisdom (6) F
This course is designed to help students understand the concept of wisdom and its importance in life. It will explore the biblical and philosophical foundations of wisdom and how it can be applied in everyday life. Students will be encouraged to reflect on their own experiences and to seek wisdom in their relationships and decisions.

205B. Wisdom (6) F
This course is designed to help students understand the concept of wisdom and its importance in life. It will explore the biblical and philosophical foundations of wisdom and how it can be applied in everyday life. Students will be encouraged to reflect on their own experiences and to seek wisdom in their relationships and decisions.

215A-B. Beauty (6) S

215A. Beauty (6) S
This course is designed to help students understand the concept of beauty and its importance in life. It will explore the biblical and philosophical foundations of beauty and how it can be applied in everyday life. Students will be encouraged to reflect on their own experiences and to seek beauty in their relationships and decisions.

215B. Beauty (6) S
This course is designed to help students understand the concept of beauty and its importance in life. It will explore the biblical and philosophical foundations of beauty and how it can be applied in everyday life. Students will be encouraged to reflect on their own experiences and to seek beauty in their relationships and decisions.

225A-B. Justice (6) F

225A. Justice (6) F
This course is designed to help students understand the concept of justice and its importance in life. It will explore the biblical and philosophical foundations of justice and how it can be applied in everyday life. Students will be encouraged to reflect on their own experiences and to seek justice in their relationships and decisions.

225B. Justice (6) F
This course is designed to help students understand the concept of justice and its importance in life. It will explore the biblical and philosophical foundations of justice and how it can be applied in everyday life. Students will be encouraged to reflect on their own experiences and to seek justice in their relationships and decisions.

235. Creation (6) S

235. Creation (6) S