5. The ACT/SAT(R)/CLT score requirement will normally be waived if the minimum TOEFL, iTEP, or IELTS score requirement has been met.
 6. TOEFL, Duolingo, iTEP, or IELTS requirements will normally be waived for International Students who transfer to Union with at least 24 semester hours of transferable credit (including at least 6 credit hours of English composition or equivalent courses approved by the Director of the Center for Intercultural Engagement) and who present evidence of English proficiency by earning a cumulative GPA of at least 2.3 from a regionally accredited college or university in the United States OR who hold a Bachelor's Degree from a regionally accredited U.S. college or university OR who have completed four years of U.S. high school and meet high school competency requirements and Union University admissions standards.
 7. Students whose native language is not English may be required to participate in an interview with the Director of the Center for Intercultural Engagement. This interview may be conducted either in person or by phone. A placement test may also be required.
- course work tailored for their unique orientation needs to include; but not be limited to; ENG 111, ENG 112, and ICS 105.
- Union University, and in particular the Center for Intercultural Engagement, has a long-standing commitment of providing comprehensive support for its third-culture students. As part of this support, ICS 110, Introduction to Intercultural Studies, is a required course for dependents of missionaries and other overseas professionals. These students take ICS 110 during their first semester at Union. This course, an exploration of the theoretical and practical issues related to intercultural engagement, provides a framework for third culture students to navigate complex intercultural terrains.
- In certain situations, exceptions may be granted by the Director of the Center for Intercultural Engagement. International students will be advised by an international student advisor, as well as by an assigned faculty advisor in their major department, during their first year. Both the international student advisor and the departmental advisor must be consulted in registration decisions.

Students transferring from another accredited institution of higher learning in the United States will be required to meet the same requirements for admission as all other transfer students.

An I-20 form may be issued only after admission requirements and the above monetary requirements have been satisfied.

As a condition of their admission, each international student will normally be required to enroll as a full-time student in
