

---

Dean

413. Suicide Intervention (3)

This course is designed to explore the theories, research, assessment, interventions, and prevention methods as they relate to suicide.

441. Applied Psychology Internship (3)

Course Offerings in Historical Reasoning (HIST)

201. Historical Reasoning (3)

This course will serve as a basic introduction to historiography and historical reasoning. It will examine basic movements in historiography, historical methodologies, and what constitute evidence in historical reconstruction.

Course Offerings in Leadership (LDR)

311. Leadership Theory (3)

This course will introduce the history of Leadership Theory from the theory of born leaders to transformational leadership theory of non-positional learned leadership.

321. Managerial Accounting (3)

Introduction to basic tools for financial management, with an emphasis on both startups and nonprofits. Topics include assets, basic forms of organizations, time value of money, risk and rates of return.

331. Legal Management (3)

This course surveys the legal, practical, and ethical environments in which businesses, nonprofits, and managers operate, with an emphasis on legal issues facing startups and faith-based nonprofits.

341. Human Resources Management (3)

This course explores methods used by both businesses and nonprofit organizations in recruitment, training, compensation, and utilization of human resources.

351. Sales Management (3)

This course explores the principles and practices of sales in a business environment and particularly in a startup context.

401. Organizational Strategy (3)

Reciprocal credit: NPL 401.

This course will address the skills and knowledge necessary to develop mission/vision driven organizational strategies in for-profit, nonprofit and hybrid organizations.

Course Offerings in Literary Reasoning (LIT)

201. Literary Reasoning (3)

This course introduces students to the practice of reading, thinking about, and analyzing literature by observing critical and spiritual contexts to move them toward self-conscious and intentional methods of evaluation.

Course Offerings in Urban and Theological Studies (MCUTS)

101. Foundations of Academic Inquiry (3)

This "college essentials" course teaches students the academic strategies and lifestyle disciplines and characteristics needed to be successful as a college student.

103. Advocacy and Social Movements (3)

This course will examine both the theory behind and the practical applications of community activism/advocacy and social movements.

104. Critical Reasoning (3)

This course serves as a basic introduction to general reasoning and argumentation skills and helps students evaluate sound reasoning and question unsound assumptions.

201. Introduction to Urban Studies (3)

This course introduces students to the study of urban diversities in cities within the United States. The course will help students understand how cities have developed by placing urban issues in a context that helps improve student comprehension of the cities they live in.

301. Spiritual Formation (3)

This course will introduce students to the practice of spiritual formation including the history of spirituality, the disciplines, and key classic texts related to Christian Spirituality.

321. Urban Mission Theology (3)

This course explores the theological and spiritual foundations for being "on mission" in the city and for the city. The incarnation of Jesus is presented as the fundamental theological and dispositional concept for biblical urban mission, and serves as the lens through which social location and socio-cultural realities in urban communities are approached and understood. Emerging from this are an understanding of "incarnational witness" and an ability to interpret contemporary urban issues in light of Scripture and missional theology. The urban ministry matters discussed serve as a primer for more detailed analyses in other praxis-focused courses.

322. Biblical Theology of the Marginalized (3)

This course surveys Scripture's witness to concern for the marginalized from Genesis to Revelation. Students will gain an awareness of who the marginalized are in Scripture and then explore what the Bible says about these groups and the faith community's responsibilities in relationship to them.

401. Christian Ethics (3)

This course will be a basic introduction to Ethics and will focus on moral reasoning, professional applications, and the value of the common good.

Course Offerings in Social Science (SOSC)

201. Social Science Reasoning (3)

The course introduces students to pivotal paradigms in the social sciences and the contributions the various disciplines make to critical thinking.

Course Offerings in Public Speaking (SPE)

101. Public Speaking (3)

Public speaking is a performance course dedicated to the theory and practice of oral communication. Development of skill in speech organization, poise, and confidence is emphasized.

201. Speaking in a Church Context (3)

This course presents key components in the development and delivery of Biblical messages.

Course Offerings in Statistics (STAT)

201. Statistical Reasoning (3)

This course will explore the various branches of statistics and the dimensions of thinking they contribute to critical reasoning. The course will also examine how statistics are used in different real world situations and survey historical developments in the discipline.

Course Offerings in Theology (THEO)

101. Scriptural Reasoning (3)

An examination of the major themes and subsequent biblical theology evident in both the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament. The course will address themes in Biblical Theology and Ethics, the challenges of interpretation on e17.2536

